

“Only those who can see the invisible, can do the impossible!” F.L. Gaines

Špela is well known former dancer, choreographer and coach with multiple success projects during (former World and European champion and EuroBasket group Dragon Ladies) her years of dancing and coaching.

She gathered her knowledge during her rich career as a dancer (in most known and appreciated dance companies in the world as Broadway dance center, Millennium dance center...) and later as a coach, she graduated in the Faculty of sports with honors in a field of Pom and Cheer dancing (which was the first diploma in this field in Europe).

Now she is one of the most honored and respected international dance coaches in the world, with a vast knowledge and experience, which lead to her being a coach of many groups, working and teaching in several countries, head of educational systems for dancers and coaches, various national team coach, owner of her own dance company, creator of unique dance techniques, she is still learning and improving herself and also helping and teaching others home and around the world as certified international coach.

“My purpose is to thrive dancers to be their best they can be, to feel their potential and live it. Always giving it all in with passion, love and confidence and the results always follow!”
